THE W. P. SAYWARD CASE

THE BRITISH GOVERMENT TESTING UNCLE SAM'S LAWS.

Counsel Argue as to the Constitutionality of the U.S. Behring Sea Statute—Dempsey-Fitzsimmons Fight a Sure Thing—Mayor of Orleans Won't Stop it.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Calderon Carlisle, counsel for the British Government in the Behring Sea controversy before the supreme court of the United States, has issued a statement in regard to the matter in which he said the question raised by the suggestion for a writ of prohibition is not a question belonging to the appropriate function of diplomacy in the political department of the government but is solely a question of law. The scope and purpose of the proceedings in the supreme court, says Carlisle, is to obtain judical construction of the laws of the United States which under the construction of the district court of Alaska have deprived British subjects of nearly half a million dollars worth of property. The question is not what may the United States do in Behring Sea, but what it has done. If the United States claims the right of property in either high sea or its animals it can so declare by statute to-morrow and the courts would be bound to follow the law. Whatever diplomatic negotiations might arise in consequence with other nations, certainly all parties concerned are entitled to the interpretation of the existing laws of the United States from authorative sources. This is all that is sought and is precisely what the executive and legislative branches of the government are constitutionally disqualified to give.

The Fight Will Not Be Stopped.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 14.—The mayor said to-day that he would not interfere in the coming prize fight, and it is understood that the Government will let the matter rest entirely with the municipal authorities. Kilrain and Muldoon are in town and all notable pugilists of the country have either already arrived or are on the way. Among the latter is Peter Jackson, the negro champion. Sullivan it is said, will be here.

To-night will decide the question of whether Jack Dempsey or Bob Fitzsimmons is entitled to the middleweight championship of the world. Betting runs 11 to 10 on Dempsey, on the blackboards of the pool room. Robert Day, of St. Louis, also placed $5000 at even money. New Orleans money is mainly going to the Australian and if the Nonpareil is successful the city will be in sackcloth and ashes. Fitzsimmons will leave Bay St. Louis this morning. He is at weight and his condition is all that could be desired. He looks thinner and leaner than ever, but the muscle was solid and firm, and if he gives out it will not be on account of his legs. Dempsey, anticipating relief from the training and worry, is in better humor than for sometime past. He took a drive this morning with his wife and baby. He is somewhat anxious for fear the soft sugar he has been eating may be cut up by the constant walking. The fight is to be a long one, but the club officials say that it is guaranteed. Owing to the non arrival of Fitzsimmons no referee has yet been selected; a meeting for that purpose is to be held this afternoon when Alexander Brewster will probably be selected and a fair fight and no favors is a foregone conclusion.

Schooner Ashore.

FIRE ISLAND, Jan. 14.—The schooner Otter, from St. Kitts, with a cargo of salt, went ashore at Bellpor, Long Island, this morning. Two men were drowned coming ashore.

COMPLETELY GUTTED.

A Large New York Malt House Destroyed by Fire.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—The large malt house of E. M. Vantassell at West Eleventh street and Thirteenth avenue was completely gutted by fire early this morning, with a loss of about $500,000 to the stock and $40,000 to building. The latter was a six story brick structure filled with 30,000 bushels of feed and grain. The flames were first noticed at 1 o'clock by the watchman within, and ten minutes afterward the two upper floors were ablaze and burning furiously. In an incredible short space of time the entire building was on fire. A hundred and twenty horses of the Knickerbocker Ice Company, whose stable is at the rear of the malt house, were panic stricken and stampeded through the stable. They were eventally rescued and taken to another stable. In the meantime four alarms had been sent out, and 18 engines, 6 trucks and two water towers were soon at work. The firemen turned their attention to the Knickerbocker's stable and the interior stores for oiled meal and hay which adjoined the burning building. The roof of the granary fell in about 2:30 o'clock and sparks from the fallen roof caused small fires in the neighborhood which, however, were soon extinguished. After this the south wall building fell, nearly burying a number of firemen. One of them was slightly injured. The falling wall carried with it nearly 200 telegraph wires. The firemen succeeded in confining the flames to the malt house and soon had the flames under control.

Notice.

I will make all clothing to order at greatly reduced prices next thirty days. My reason for doing this is, I have leased the corner of the new Turner block and have ordered a large and well selected stock to fill it, and I want to run off all my present stock so as not to move it there. All work guaranteed. J. McCallum, 43 Fort street. Jan.14 1m.

Dined His Council.

In the Driard dining room which has witnessed so many pleasant parties, the council with the municipal officers and heads of the various departments, met last evening as the guests of his worship Mayor Grant. Among the guests of honor were Hon. A. N. Richards, Q. C., and Mr. D. M. Eberts. The host graced the head of the table with ability and tact. The Driard tried to show what it could do in the way of serving a good dinner, and the aldermen inwardly thought that it was a shame to impose that $100 tax on travelers and deprive them of the good fare which the Driard provide. After dinner there were speeches, but they were not of the cut and dry after dinner speech character. They were short, happily expressed and brimful of good fellowship. The party broke up and went homewards about half past ten o'clock.

New Banking and Exchange House.

Now that the Turner block is assuming an appearance of completeness, people are beginning to have an idea of what it will be like when the building is carried through to the Yates street end, and efforts are being made to secure the handsome stores. Messrs. A. W. More & Co., have succeeded in this direction and will open up as financial brokers, exchange bankers, accountants and real estate brokers. Besides having the pick of the real estate market for investors, arrangements have been effected whereby the firm can transact business with the leading cities throughout Canada, the States and Europe. This arrangement is made with the principal chartered banks in those cities. Mr. More himself is a level headed young Scotsman, with all the keen and commendable business virtues of his nation. He has had experience extending over many years in the Clydesdale bank, Glasgow, and other branches throughout Scotland; in the Chartered bank of India, Australia and China, London, England, and in the Bank of British Columbia at Victoria and Nanaimo. He has been in the province for three years, and has just recently resigned from the management of the Nanaimo branch of the Bank of British Columbia. Mr. More has also the experience of several years in a Scotch legal firm, where he obtained a knowledge that cannot be otherwise than valuable to him in his new business. In Mr. Corsan Mr. More has a very capable and experienced partner, who has been engaged for a number of years in the banking business in eastern Canada.

A HORRIBLE REPAST.

REVOLTING CANIBALISM IN NEW HEBREDES.

Dalton McCarthy on the Dual Language Stump—Nihilists Still Active in Europe Another Fire in New York—General Press Dispatches.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—Further particulars from the commander of the British cruiser Royalist, tell of an extraordinary scene at New Hebridies, when three natives were executed by order of the commander for killing and eating a French trader and his son. Immediately after the execution a number of natives asked for the bodies and the commander supposing that the relatives wanted the remains for burial, gave them up. The natives retired a short distance and immediately proceeded to cook and devour the bodies of the dead criminals, much to the horror of the British officers and men who did not, however, feel justified in interfering.

LONDON GOSSIP.

The authorities are annoyed at the latest advices from Newfoundland, and Lord Salisbury is making new approaches to France for the settlement of the shore question, but at present without much prospect of solution. The latest rumor from Paris is that France will not settle short of a surrender of the Channel Islands by Great Britain.

The British Coal Miners' Federation has made proposals to the mine owners union to discuss the question of hours with a view of compromise. The owners claim that on account of the great advance in miners' wages they cannot consent to eight hours without losing all their profits.

There is now no doubt that no international copyright bill can pass parliament which does not provide for the printing in England of books to be copyrighted in England. The printing trade has formed a strong combination to this effect, and is supported by the Printers' and Trades' Unions.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—It is reported from Congo State that a large quantity of arms imported by a Dutch company have been disposed of to tribes in the interior, and they are recommencing their slave raids on the native population.

The Great Western railway has put two cars of American pattern on its line. The cars are divided in the middle, one being third class and the other first. The innovation has attracted much attention, but as yet the verdict of the travelling public has not been registered.

The Duke of Cumberland is travelling about under the name of Baron Culloden a fact which does not add to his popularity in Scotland.

It is said that Gladstone will speak in behalf of the Liberal candidate for the Hartlepool vacancy. A deep interest is felt in this election. The constituency being Liberal, apart from the Irish home rule issue, Tories and dissenting Liberals are [illegible] struggle.

Nihilists "Confess."

LONDON, Jan. 14.—The Russian police have succeeded in obtaining a confession from several hundred or more persons to be put on trial shortly for nihilists. These confessions show that the nihilist propaganda is as powerful as ever, and more especially strong in the higher schools and universities. The Nihilists, the informer says, would for the present be satisfied with the freedom of the press and the creation of a national assembly, such as existed until the sixteenth century, and was abolished by the Czars. The various bodies of nihilists act independently of each other. Although actual torture was not used so far as known in procuring the confessions, yet a severe examination lasting without relief or cessation, for many hours at a time, had some effect in bringing about a physical collapse and admissions to whatever was desired.

The five nihilists surrendered by the British ambassador in Constantinople to the Russians, were accused of train wrecking, otherwise they would not have been given up.

Made Homeless.

BOMBAY, Jan. 14.—Fire has destroyed two hundred houses in this city. Hundreds of families are homeless.

Foolhardy Fellows.

PARIS, Jan. 14.—To-day, notwithstanding the contrary orders of the authorities, and the efforts of the police to enforce them, a number of men and boys attempted to cross the Seine on the ice. In this foolhardy attempt nine persons lost their lives.

Dillon as Leader.

PARIS, Jan. 14.—The Siecle announces that John Dillon upon his arrival in France will be chosen the leader of the Irish Parliamentary party.

Will Not Accept Money.

PARIS, Jan. 14.—The Minister of Foreign Affairs has informed Lord Lytton, British ambassador, that France will not accept any compensation for her fishery rights in Newfoundland that she does not consider to be their full equivalent. Nothing of that nature has been offered to her. It was for the British Government to say what she can give; money will not be accepted.

Fire at Montreal.

MONTREAL, Jan. 14.—The premises owned by R. B. Angus, on Craig street, were completely ruined by fire last night. The tenants, amongst who were the Chadwick Spool Co., Hughs and Stevenson, Southern and Carrie, printers, Waters Bros. & Co. lost everything. The loss which amounts to $125,000 will fall about equally on owner and tenants, but it was well covered by insurance.

Fire at Brighton.

BRIGHTON, Ont., Jan. 14.—The Kelly house, Nesbitt Block, Webb block and other property was burned yesterday. Loss, $40,000; insurance unknown.

OBJECTS TO A DUAL LANGUAGE.

Dalton M'Carthy Orates Against the French Canadians—Lacks Confidence.

STAYNER, Ont., Jan. 14.—Dalton M'Carthy was one of the speakers at a convention held here yesterday of the Conservatives of North Simcoe, which he represents in the Dominion parliament. He said in explanation of the course he had pursued on the Jesuit bill and French language question, "I found for many years that French Canadians were gaining in influence and power, and not in public affairs in keeping with their wealth or their numbers. That they had a policy antigonistic to the best interests of this country, and that it was their dream to re-organize Canada and make it a French speaking country. Manitoba had been forced to accept the dual language system and the proceedings and laws of the Province had to be printed in both languages. The same state of affairs had been forced upon the people of the Northwest territories. The people of Manitoba, acting within their provincial rights, have abolished the dual language. At this next session I want my hands free so that if the government should disallow the measure, as many suppose, I may raise my voice and move a want of confidence in Sir John's ministry even if I stand alone. The bill may not be disallowed for this reason and others may move a vote of want of confidence in the administration. If such be the case I stand by the government. I believe this is a matter frought with vital consequence. It is virtually a question of whether this is to be an English country or not. We cannot do much in Quebec, but we can at least guard the interests of Manitoba and the North west. We can see that in this greatest and finest province of the Dominion there is not laid the foundation of a French nation. For this reason I desire to stand independent on the dual language question."

McCarthy explained the dead lock at present existing in the Northwest territories between the Government royal and the council, and said it was his intention to move in this matter. He said whatever was granted to the territories should be given to the council, and not the Lieut-Governor. When McCarthy had concluded his speech a resolution heartily endorsing his action on the dual language question was carried without a dissenting voice.

THE SAYWARD CASE.

Minister of Justice Thompson Being Congratulated for What He Has Done.

Special to the TIMES.]

OTTAWA, Jan. 14.—Sir John Thompson had the Sayward case, which has been brought before the United States Supreme Court, prepared with the sanction of the British authorities, so as to give the court an opportunity of passing judgment on the question as to territorial jurisdiction in those waters. If the court decides in favor of the owners of the Sayward, the whole question of territorial jurisdiction will be raised and decided, but if it decides otherwise, Britain will still press for the whole issue going to arbitration. It is thought in government circles that a move in this case will tend greatly to bring the matter to a head and Thompson is congratulated accordingly. Some time ago Sedgwick was in Washington laying the whole particulars in the case before the British Ambassador's legal adviser.

OTTAWA, Jan. 14.—The department of agriculture has been advised from one of its veterinary inspectors at Fort McLeod that the disease reported to exist among horses there was grossly exaggerated. The stock is said to be in excellent condition

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.

An Old Lady of Nanaimo Burned to Death While All Alone.

Special to the TIMES.]

NANAIMO, Jan. 14.—An old lady named Mrs. Guest, 82 years of age, met with a frightful death last night by burning. The old lady was left alone in the house, and while in the act of poking the fire some hot coal fell out on to her dress and she was enveloped in flames. Her screams soon brought assistance, but she was so shockingly burned that she died a few hours after the occurence.

Victoria Artists.

Professors Fenwick and Strauss have returned from Tacoma, where they were engaged by the Philharmonic Society to take part in the production of that glorious work the "Messiah." Prof. Strauss was in great demand both as first violin in the orchestra and also in assisting the conductor. As usual, he performed his part with all the skill and precision of a thorough musician. Prof. Fenwick as tenor soloist excelled himself. His lyric voice clear, and his articulation perfect, called forth many a handshaking and pretty compliment at the close of the performance, of which himself and his companion might justly be proud. The chorus, under the direction of Prof. H. Joy, was good, and the other soloists from Portland, San Francisco and Tacoma, were good. The orchestra did fairly well in all but the recitatives, and they were unaccustomed to the work. The following day an artists' recital was given to the Ladies' Musical club, of Tacoma, which was attended by 340 musical ladies and the professional men of the city. Mr. Strauss held the audience in raptures with Bach, Beethoven, Rubenstein, Liszt and other composers and was repeatedly called back, while Mr. Fenwick sang in excellent style operatic selection (Italian) but in his "Beneath the Ramparts," he fairly brought down the house. He responded with a ballad that completed the ideas of the people of Tacoma that he was a vocal artist. In the evening the two gentlemen were given a reception at the charming residence of Mr. Brisbone, where the musical people were invited and after a most brilliant evening they finished their engagement with as hearty thanks and expressions of satisfaction as two musicians could desire, and Victoria, B. C., should be proud of their talent.

CANADIAN TELEGRAMS.

Newsy Items Gathered from Different Parts of the Dominion.

There was a heavy southerly gale, with rain last night and the tide rose at St. Johns, N. B., higher than it has been for many years completely submerging the wharves around the south and north and on Nelson street, where considerable damage was done not only to the shores and warehouses, but to the stock stored therein. On Walker's wharf there are several dwelling houses and shops, and in these the water was a couple of feet deep.

Amelia Lambombarde, aged 17, of Brockville, Ont., was told by her mother that she must earn her own living, and she started on foot for Malone, 20 miles distant. Her body frozen stiff has been found a short distance south of Malone.

The marriage took place on Dec. 6th, of E. C Cotes of the Indian Civil service to Sarah Jeannette, oldest daughter of C. Duncan of Brantford. The bride is the well known Canadian writer who has made so great a name for herself under the nom de plume of Garth Grafton.

Behring Sea Opinions.

Hamilton Spectator:—So far as Canada is concerned, it might be a good thing to have Behring sea declared a mare clausum. For in that case it would inevitably follow that Hudson bay would be in a like position; and exclusive ownership of Hudson bay would be more valuable than free access to Behring sea.

San Francisco Examiner:—Mr. Blaine's plan for protecting the seal fisheries is untenable. It would be impossible to declare the sea around Alaska closed, just as it would be impossible to declare the Pacific ocean closed, with Japan on one side and the United States on the other. Perhaps if the British Government were to assist the United States in an effort to keep out the seal pirates, such a result might be accomplished. The cod and salmon fisheries are the only things of value or importance in Alaska to-day.

Dominion Finances.

The statement of the Dominion for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1890, has just been made up in the department of finance. The total receipts from all sources were $66,781,366, compared with $71,146,964 the previous year. The receipts from customs were $23,968,753; from excise, $8,618,118; from railways, $3,566,406; and from post office service, $2,358,388. The receipts from loans amounted to $11,276,291. The ordinary revenue for the year was $39,879,925, and the ordinary expenditure $35,994,031, an excess of revenue over expenditure of $3,855,894. The sums paid as subsidies to railways amounted to $1,622,288. The public debt at the close of the fiscal year was $237,538,211. The amount of debt relieved during the year was $4,403,069. The receipts from Dominion lands were $220,141, a decrease of over $17,000 from 1889. The assets of Canada are placed at $48,579,083, a reduction of over $1,500,000; and the liabilities at $286,112,295, a reduction of $1,500,000. There stands to the credit of the Indian fund the sum of $3,392,112. The amount invested during the year for a sinking fund was $1,887,237 making the total thus invested $24,617,535. It might be mentioned the Skeena river expedition sent to supress the fancied Indian uprising in British Columbia is charged up to the Dominion in the sum of $5,400, although it was admitted a purely provincial affair.

A Most Extraordinary Case! Suffered for Thirty Years! Convinced that the Cure is Found!

Mrs. Mary A. Jones, of Newton Robinson, Ont., is a lady who has suffered for thirty years from that dreadful and painful disease rheumatism. Her case was a serious one and baffled the skill of doctors. After years of fears and hopes and very varied treatment, without any good results, she commenced recently to use Paine's Celery Compound, and in her case it has produced a wonderful effect.

She says:—"For a period of 30 years I have been a sufferer from rheumatism. During that time I have tried many remedies to obtain a cure, and have at various intervals been under the care and treatment of the doctor, without deriving any permanent relief. I commenced lately to use Paine's Celery Compound, and it has already had a most wonderful effect, although I have only used two bottles. It has done me more real good and given me greater relief than anything I have ever used, and I intend to continue its use, as I am firmly convinced it will entirely cure me. With best wishes for you and your valuable medicine, believe me, etc. Yours truly,

MARY A. JONES.

These words certainly ought to prove comforting and cheering to all rheumatic sufferers and give them hope for the future. A trial of this great and valuable Compound will not cost much, and will surely convince the most sceptical that it is in very truth the remedy they require.

WHY GRANT SHOULD BE RE-ELECTED.

TO THE EDITOR:—On Thursday next, if I am alive and well, I intend to vote for Mayor Grant for the first time. Politically and municipally I have hitherto been opposed to him. Politically my feelings have undergone no change. I do not think that the party of which he is a valuable member, would improve matters at James Bay by turning out the present office holders. But municipally I have arrived at the conclusion that, although Mayor Grant is, by no means perfect (who is?) the time has not yet arrived when we can with safety to the public interests, dispense with his services. Mr. Grant has been sufficiently long in office to thoroughly understand the wants and requirements of the city. He has got civic matters well within his grasp; a large contract for sewerage has just been given out, and the city has leaped far beyond the old limits and taken within its arms several thousand additional inhabitants. These important and weighty matters will require the personal attention of a cool and experienced person, such as the Mayor is, to handle, and I think that a change would be unadvisable at this moment.

I go to a certain extent with the moral reformers, who are exerting themselves with much vigor to defeat Mr. Grant, but I loathe the system of detraction and abuse they have adopted in the hope to carry their point. Victoria is no worse than any other Canadian seaport, and a good deal better than some that I might readily mention. Turn back to your files four years ago and read the assault that Mr. Gooderham and Mr. Johnson, of Toronto, made on the reputation of this city. These gentlemen were well-meaning enough, no doubt, but they happened to be thrown while here into the company of Pecksniffs and Chadbands and drawing their inspiration from that source, painted Victoria in the blackest of hues. By a strange coincidence the identical number of the Globe that printed the wail of Gooderham and Johnson contained an editorial article complaining of the desperate condition of the morals of Toronto the Good, which wound up with the statement that things had reached the pitch that a respectable woman could not walk the streets of that city after dark without fear of insult.

Will the moral reformers dare to say that a similar condition of things obtains here? Whoever heard of a respectable woman being insulted on a Victoria street?

I say that open gambling and all night saloons should be suppressed, but a mayor cannot lift a finger in that direction until a council that will support him has been elected. Give Mr. Grant a pure council and he will enforce its mandates energetically and fearlessly.

I would advise the Moral Reform Association to vote for Mr. Grant and look well to the men whom they elect as aldermen. A change of mayor at this crisis would be disastrous to the material interests of the city and would not advance reform a single step unless the board of aldermen gave consent.

FRONTIERSMAN.

THE MAYORALTY.

TO THE EDITOR.—The question at issue between some of the clergymen and Mayor Grant, as far as I can learn by the reports of the meetings, is whether Victoria is a bad or a good city in the eyes of the world. It would seem that the mayor and aldermen took issue with the reverend gentlemen forming part of the delegation, that is to say they (the aldermen) considered, although reform in some instances was necessary, they were not desirous of having the city painted as a wicked one. I have had several conversations with Mayor Grant during the past year on the question of better Sunday law, and I found that he was always liberal in his views on this point. In fact he went as far as to say that he would be willing to see the saloons closed within certain hours on the Sabbath day. I might say, as regards Mayor Grant personally, that in an acquaintance of nearly eleven years I have never seen him or heard of him being under the influence of liquor.

Now this is saying a great deal of a man who has had to meet all kinds and classes of men and occupying as he has done various political positions and having gone through many a political contest.

Those who would instruct us at this time, will say never mind the small defects or shortcomings of the candidates, it is the big ones you must look to. This teaching I cannot accept as the correct one. After many years acquaintance have I noticed in Mayor Grant anything glaringly wrong in his character and have I yet to learn of him belittling himself in any way to speak disrespectfully of his neighbor, yes, even of a political opponent. He has always been willing to make allowances for the failings or shortcomings of others, and give assistance to those in need, whether they were his friends or foes. An instance of this came to my notice only last Saturday. A man at a distance wrote me to pay to Mayor Grant a sum of money in payment to him for a board bill he (Grant) had kindly paid last winter. It seems the old man referred to had been taken sick at a certain hotel in the city last winter, and without money to pay for his board, he required some pecuniary assistance, and Mayor Grant was the man to whom he looked to as a friend, and the Mayor became responsible for his indebtedness. Now, over one year afterwards, the man, living out of the city, writes me to pay Mayor Grant the sum of money he had lent him, and to thank him for his kindness. I hope to meet Mayor Grant before election day (next Thursday), and deliver my message as well as pay him the amount due him.

Is this not the right kind of Christianity? And could not many more cases be cited like the above in the history of Mayor Grant? Yes, many of our citizens can bear testimony to this.

The whole question with some seems to be, that because the mayor and aldermen were not disposed to be dictated to in the way some of the rev. gentlemen would have wished, and because the audience hissed (which was an improper thing to do), they went away in wrath, and now pounce upon Mayor Grant, and call him all that is bad, and nothing that is good.

I admit the mayor at the meeting referred to might have left unsaid some things he did say, but judging from the report more than one lost his temper. If the moral reformers had gone about their mission in a different way, they would have found in Mayor Grant one willing to assist them in at least some reforms that are necessary in our city.

Let us elect a good set of aldermen, with John Grant for mayor, and we will find that the necessary reforms will come if properly undertaken.

OH, MY BACK!

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bent over. When I sat down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when the kind Providence sent Dr. Henley, with the OREGON KIDNEY TEA, to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days I am happy to state that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Respecting the convening of the legislature at a date considerably earlier than usual, the Columbian connects it with the census which will be taken April 6th. The Government it will be remembered, promised that so soon as the census should be taken they would introduce a new "redistribution" bill, in which the Mainland would be given a square deal. To avoid any possibility of bringing up a measure of this kind in the House this year, by reason of the proximity of the census, the Columbian insinuates that the House has been called together earlier that it might dissolve the sooner, thus protracting a question of equitable representation for practically two years. Says the Columbian, after having alluded to the Premier's promise to introduce fresh redistribution legislation, when he should have been able to feast his eyes on the census report:

"The Premier may not have anticipated when he wrote and spoke as above, that the census would have been taken early enough to enable the House to act on this data during the very next session; but the Premier did know on what day the census would be taken (for it has been public property for some time) when he decided on calling the Legislature together at a considerably earlier date than usual."

How unkind of the Columbian to so broadly intimate that Honest JOHN desires to put off the ordeal of another redistribution bill as long as possible. As if Honest JOHN would do such a thing as that! With all due respect for the Columbian, which has done good work since the Honest JOHN betrayed the Mainland, we should say that this is not the kind of political capital that is wanted just now. The question is, shall Honest JOHN be permitted to hold the fort any longer? Are the Independents and the Opposition, who are first cousins in the matter of provincial reform, going to try and give their policy effect as separate political bodies? We hope not. They should be able to effect a coalescence. There is nothing to prevent coalescence in point of political differences. If a coalescence is not effected, we shall take it that personal ambition has stood in the way. For our part, we are unable to see how the Independents can possibly affiliate with the Government in any particular. Indeed, to be consistent with themselves, "no compromise" should be their watchword. They should not be content with anything short of a clean sweep. Again, the Independents have no need to affiliate with the gang whose policy it has been to barter away the birthright of the people of this province, and who have never undertaken a reform except in the sense of making virtue a necessity. Working together, the Independents and the Opposition constitute a minority which the Government could not afford to ignore. Working in concert they could compel the reforms which they declare to be essential to progress. And if the Independents and the Opposition do not work together what will have been the cause? It will have been because the Government have undertaken to grind a number of private axes. The private axe-grinding business has been the policy of the Government hitherto, and the signs are that they will continue the business at the old stand in the future. They will seize with avidity every private job that is offered and spoliation will go on apace. Will members ever learn that they represent something more than their respective constituencies? The representative for a given district is indeed bound to see that his constituents get their dues, but he is equally bound to see that the province is not plundered. No member's responsibility ends with his district. His responsibility is as broad and as comprehensive as the province. He is responsible for his actions to the whole province. The member who barters his support for certain supposed advantages to his constituents has simply been bribed. The member who supports the Government in a bad or questionable measure for the reason that his district has been conceded its demands has no conception of the true functions of a legislator. This, however, is not an infrequent practice, not alone in the provinces, but in the Dominion House as well. No legislator can afford to surrender his independence for any cause whatsoever, and it is to be hoped that the present House will not undertake to legislate on the give and take principle. How was it that the Government was able to pass the mining royalty clause, when there was not a man in the House who was not aware that a bad principle was involved in it? It was simply because the respective supporters of the measure had been accommodated by the Government, and in exchange gave their support to the measure. Is this system to be repeated in the House this winter? There is no occasion for it. If the Independents and the Opposition are as virtuous as they pretend to be, they will compel the reforms they ask without pledging themselves to the slavish support of the measures which the Government will probably put forth.

DR. SCHLIEMAN.

Dr. SCHLIEMAN, the eminent archeologist, recently deceased, was a very superstitious man. KATE FIELD, writing of him, says that, even as a child he dreamed realities. At seven he determined to dig for Troy and he did it. He was ever building castles. When a young man he dreamed 111,641 was the lucky number in a lottery and immediately wrote a letter to Berlin enclosing 10 thalers to be invested in this number at the next lottery. The number, however, had already been taken and the lucky owner of it drew a prize of 120,000 thalers. A tailor who had never accomplished anything up to his 57th year, but who thenceforward rapidly accumulated a fortune told SCHLIEMAN that the secret of his success was owing to his habit of putting on his left stocking, left shoe, his left everything first. SCHLIEMAN adopted this practice and attributed his subsequent success to the faithful observance of it. His luck, he averred, changed for the better from the moment he heeded the old tailor. But SCHLIEMAN was more than a believer in luck. How many men are willing to go to school at forty-five? Yet this is just what SCHLIEMAN did do. He conquered living and dead languages during middle life, and made the tour of the world after he had learned its varied speech. Dr. SCHLIEMAN, for all that he believed in luck, owed his success indubitably to his energy, perseverance and enthusiasm. The moral of Dr. SCHLIEMAN'S life is that success awaits the man whose industry is proportionate to his ambition.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Ottawa Free Press: As Mr. FOSTER'S trip to the West Indies has been utterly barren of good results it is expected that Mr. Haggard will be despatched at once to Liberia. The negroes who live near the equator are said to want a large supply of winter clothing, snow shoes, fur overcoats, etc., which no doubt Canada can supply at low prices.

The Japanese vessel bearing the survivors of the wrecked Ertogroul was denied admission to the Dardanelles. "Coming on a mission of mercy the Japanese iron-clad was treated as an enemy," says the Toronto World, and its commander wrathfully put to sea determined to replace the rescued Turks in the water where he found them. That would have been a fit ending to the ridiculous affair.

Mr. BENJ. R. TUCKER, of Boston, announced that he would publish on Saturday, January 10, the first English translation of Count TOLSTOI'S latest work, "The Fruits of Culture." This book, like "The Kreutzer Sonata," has never been published in Russia. It is a twofold satire on "culture" and spiritualism. The folly of the so-called "cultured" classes is exhibited in a humorous picture of their fashions, "fads," and mental freaks, and the story hinges upon the effect of modern spiritualism on an aristocratic family in Russia.

Sir LYON PLAYFAIR, the eminent British free-trader, in a recent address to the voters of Leeds, informed them that in twenty years from now they would have to look elsewhere than the United States for their grain supplies. "For," he added, "if the relative increase of farm products and of manufacturing population continues for the next twenty years in the same ratio as for the last ten, the manufacturing and trading people will consume all that the farmers can raise in America." Government statistics tend to confirm this announcement, for they show that the amount of breadstuffs retained for home consumption has constantly grown, while the manufacturers show an ever-increasing output.

It appears for certain that the "Bard of Regina" is to be "downed" if political influence and money will do it. His crime, people will remember, was that of calling Sir JOHN'S advisers a "cabinet of antiques," of which Chinese DEWDNEY is a member. But to come to the "downing" part of the business, proposed by this cabinet of antiques, it is said that a number of Conservatives, who are in the confidence of Mr. DEWDNEY, have purchased the Regina Journal, and will run it in opposition to the Leader. This means that the political destruction of Mr. DAVIN has been resolved upon, and that it will be pursued with relentless vigor until it is accomplished, or until the "antiques" are finally relegated to private life. The destruction of Mr. DAVIN, however, as proposed by the saint-like DEWDNEY, should not be so easy to compass. Reciprocity is what the Northwest wants, and Mr. DAVIN should find plenty of supporters. Mr. DAVIN was once a Canadian Liberal. He should now lose no time in re-occupying his former position, where a person of progressive instincts naturally belongs.

A personal letter from Washington brings the rather surprising intelligence that Mr. and Mrs. STANLEY are privately voted a very dull couple by the gay society of the Capital, and also by the smart set of New York. The entertainments given in their honor by Sir JULIAN PAUNCEFOTE were declared, in the secrecy of confidential chats, both "pokey" and chilly. People do not like to say such things in public, our informant writes, because they remember the accounts of Mrs. STANLEY'S brilliant social successes in London, and of the way in which society leaders there vied with each other in their efforts to obtain STANLEY'S presence at their functions. But in Washington everybody thought so emphatically. In New York people who met them said STANLEY was cold, indifferent and listless, and so entirely without social grace and tact as to come very near bad manners, and that Mrs. STANLEY'S manner was destitute of magnetism and attractiveness. Nor is this so very surprising. About the dullest, hollowest thing in the world is a social demonstration called a "reception," or an "entertainment." Everybody, it is true, attends these demonstrations who can get there, but everybody is bored just the same. STANLEY and his wife, both of whom are practical persons, are probably surfeited of these insane exhibitions, splendid though they are to outside appearance, and blunt withal, as we know STANLEY to be, it is not surprising that he should manifest unequivocal signs of being tired of them.

"PLUMP FOR M'KILICAN."

TO THE EDITOR,—I was asked by a moral reformer to-day to plump for McKillican in Yates street ward. Comment is unnecessary. A party that will resort to such tactics does not deserve success. I say, vote for three candidates, and do not let McKillican the Incompetent be one of them.

INDEPENDENCE.

M'KILLICAN AND MORE LIGHT.

TO THE EDITOR.—I hope that the electors of Yates street ward will remember, when they go to vote to-morrow, that Alderman McKillican is the originator of a scheme to buy the gas works and the electric light establishment. This will involve an expenditure of $200,000 to $300,000. Are the taxpayers prepared to return a man who is "big" with such crazy items to the council? I hope not.—I think not.

YATES STREET.

PLUMPERS.

TO THE EDITOR.—The orders given last evening to all the committees of the so-called moral reform, to vote for Mr. Alex. Wilson for mayor of course, and to plump for their candidates for aldermen—Messrs. Walker and McKillican for Yates street ward, and A. J. McLellan for Johnson street ward. These are the orders given and they cannot deny it. Therefore it is the duty of all liberals to leave those favorites of the sidebound council, namely, Messrs. Walker, McKillican and McLellan off; and not honor them with a cross, but to vote only for men of liberal opinions. And who is A. J. McLellan? Is he not one of the contractors that built a heavy section of the Island railway by Chinese labor, when hundreds of whitemen came here looking for work, and were refused the chance of earning a living because the Chinamen put more cash in the pockets of this champion of the so-called moral reform. It is well known that McLellan seldom or never gave a whiteman a job that a Chinaman could do, and how can he expect working men to vote for him. If he had his way he would have all corporation work done by Chinese, because it would be cheaper and as usual with him he would boast of it. We have no use for Chinese Mac.

WORKINGMAN.

MAYOR GRANT'S RE-ELECTION.

TO THE EDITOR.—The people of this city are to decide to-morrow who shall be their next mayor. Need the people be advised as to the man they should support? Hardly. Both candidates for the mayoralty are well known in this city. There are few ratepayers who, if they are not personally acquainted with the respective candidates know them so well by reputation, that they do not need to be told which of them they should support. Still it will not come amiss to discuss the matter briefly in behalf of Mayor Grant not because there is a probability of his being defeated but because there may be a few who misconceive his attitude on moral reform. John Grant has already put himself on record as to the kind of a reformer he is. It need not be observed, therefore, that he is not of the radical impracticable kind, one who thinks that moral ends are sufficiently subserved by merely closing the front doors. This expression is used because the kind of reform proposed by the reform element is a very chestnut, an exploded fallacy in the history of municipal reform. True reform was never yet accompanied by the outward repression of evil. To urge to the contrary is to fly into the face of facts. No legislative edict ever yet compassed reform for if such had ever been the case, there are already laws enough on our statute books to reform Hades itself. The experience of the last quarter of a century should convince any reformer that neither legislative edicts nor active police interference have been able to more than partially hide the appearance of evil. It is impossible to recall one solitary legislative measure promulgated in the interest of Sabbath observance, of the restriction of the liquor traffic and of the elimination of the social evil that is not practically a dead letter. To proceed, therefore, to effect reform by drastic measures is not Mayor Grant's policy. It must be compassed in some other way. Innovations are not reforms. The man who is virtuous because he has to be is still a sinner. If, however, this city wants reform of the hurricane kind, a reform which from the fact of its violence would soon die away and leave matters much as they were if not worse, for demoralization invariably attends reactions of this kind, the city can have it. The movement, however, must be spontaneous, universal. Mayor Grant, whether willing or not, would have to respond to such a movement. Indeed, for that matter he would not have to respond at all. Reform would already be in operation. Coteries, however, cannot expect to effect reform that is to say, ideal reform by drastic measures. Mayor Grant nor any other mayor can run counter to public sentiment. The contributing cause to the failure of legislation directed against Sabbath desecration, alcoholism and the social evil is that public sentiment is not in accord with it. It is a notorious fact that men will advocate the observance of the Sabbath who have not the least intention of observing it themselves. Others will support prohibition who would cut off their right hands sooner than "swear off." And in respect to the social evil, it is notorious that the Jezebels of the streets could a tale unfold of the virtuous citizens they frequently entertain. But the idea is not intended to be conveyed that immorality should run riot. On the contrary, its spread should be sternly repressed. A steady effort should be maintained all the time to minimize it. As illustrative of the impotency of legislation to effect reform, the following from London Truth is suggestive:—

"Nowhere does the British nation more blatantly betray its characteristic Pecksniffism than in regard to betting. We legislate against betting, make raids on betting houses, prosecute betting men, pretend that betting has been abolished; and at the same time in the columns of the serious daily press we calmy discuss the question whether betting is on the decrease or increase, just as if it were considering the progress of a fine art. Bishops join in the controversy, and so do bookmakers; but whereas, the former bring to bear upon the subject an apparently inexhaustible supply of ignorance, the latter cunningly beat about the bush and divert attention from the issue in which the public is interested." * *

All that has hitherto been striven after is to limit such transactions to those persons who are rich enough to enjoy good credit. And on the principles laid down by practical moralists, that betting is more dangerous for the poor than for the wealthy, the inclination was in the right direction. In this blessed, equitably-governed England of ours no one cares to interfere with the pleasures or vices of the upper circle of society. Betting is an agreeable pastime of the aristocracy, and the laws which professed to put a stop to it have only handed over the regulation of gambling on the turf to an unauthorized voluntarily-constituted body of noblemen and landed gentry called the Jockey Club, some of whom make a remarkably good thing out of it."

The moral of the thing is, that reform must begin in the heart. The question hence is, can the City Hall compass reform? If the ratepayers of this city fancy that the City Hall can effect reform without the co-operation of the people—not coteries—let them oppose John Grant. If they think differently, let them vote for John Grant.

INSPECTOR WILSON'S MODEST REPLY.

To the Editor of the News-Advertiser—I deem it an official duty to notice a letter signed "Alex. Robinson, Central School," which appeared in your issue of the 9th instant, and which contains unjust and incorrect statements.

It is certainly unjust to say that my object in attending the Mainland Teachers' Institute was a sinister one. Having resided for several years on the Mainland, and during that time having taken an active part in organizing what is now the Mainland Teacher's Institute, I felt that it would be a pleasure as well as my duty to attend the recent meeting.

That the department looked for, or in any way sought the passing of the resolution referred to by your correspondent, is wholly incorrect. In justice to the Superintendent, I would state that that gentleman was in total ignorance of any such intention. The hearty expressions of good will towards the department that preceded the unanimous vote in favor of the resolution, are unmistakeable evidences of the sincerity of the action taken by those present. It certainly appears strange that one who did not attend any meeting of the Institute should take the trouble to enter his "humble protest" against any resolution unanimously passed by that body.

D. WILSON.

Victoria, Jan. 10, 1891.

EMMA JUCH COMING.

The Famous Singer Will Give a Season at the Victoria, February 5th.

The Emma Juch grand English opera company, numbering over 150 people, will give a brief season of grand English opera at the Victoria commencing Thursday, February 5th. This organization will be remembered here from their highly successful engagement of last year. The repertoire will be:—Thursday, "Mignon;" Friday, "Rigoletto;" Saturday matinee, "Carmen," and Saturday evening, "Lohengrin." The organization retains all last year's favorites, and has added the following famous singers to their already strong list of principals:—Payne Clark, the famous English tenor; Otto Rathjens, the noted German baritone; Carlotta Macouda, late leading soprano of the Bostonians. The orchestra has been enlarged to thirty pieces, while the chorus now numbers eighty powerful voices, all being under the direction of Aeld Nenendorf, the well-known New York leader. The scenery, costumes, properties and electric effects used by the company in their productions, represents an actual outlay of over a quarter of a million dollars. The scale of prices range from $3 to $1 according to location.

THE WHARF ACCIDENT.

Difference of Opinion as to Whether There is Another Body Not Found.

The accident which occurred at the outer wharf on Monday continues to be one of the chief subjects of conversation, and everything new in regard to it is eagerly looked after. Nothing has yet been learned to lead to the discovery of the young German who was piling at the time of the accident, and those who were working with him seem to be uncertain as to his fate. Some say that there were only four men on the pile, while others persist that there were five. One of the most pitiful sights in connection with the accident was witnessed when Fox's widow went into Hayward's undertaking rooms last evening to see her late husband. With tears in her eyes she stroked the face of him who had been such a good husband to her and would speak to no one nor leave the place until late in the evening.

The men who were killed, Thos. Higgins, Patrick Haggart (Kelly), Andrew Fike (Fox), and Fichen (Johnson) were all Roman Catholics, and the funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock from Hayward's undertaking rooms and at 9:15 from the Roman Catholic Cathedral.

A solemn requiem mass for the repose of the souls of the unfortunate victims of the accident will be said at the Catholic cathedral to-morrow morning at half past seven o'clock. The shorter service only will be said at the funeral at 9:15 o'clock.

THE INQUEST.

An inquest was held at 1:30 this afternoon by Coroner Morrison to enquire into the cause of the death of the four men. The jury having been sworn in, they drove out to the scene of the accident and also to the undertaking parlors to view the remains. The jury were Major Nicholles, foreman, W. J. Goepel, Henry Short, B. Gordon, D. Spencer and Frank Page. Major Nicholles, before being sworn in, informed the coroner that he was exempt under the Militia Act, but would act as a favor.

W. J. Taylor, of Eberts and Taylor, appeared on behalf of the city, and H. B. W. Aikman, of Drake, Jackson & Helmcken, and P. E. Irving for Rithet & Co., owners of the wharf.

The case had just commenced as the TIMES went to press.

PERSONAL.

Movements of Well Known People in Various Directions.

T. D. Conway, of Chemainus, is at the Oriental.

J. McNamara, of New Westminster, went to San Francisco by the Walla to-day.

Bishop Lemmens was a passenger for California by the Walla Walla this morning.

Edmund Evans, of Vancouver, will leave for Montreal to-night via the Union Pacific.

A. R. Coughtreif, manager of the Douglas Cattle company's shops at Vancouver, is at the Oriental.

G. P. Baldwin, of Calcutt, Baldwin & Co., art publishers of Chicago, leaves for the Sound this evening.

John Kurtz is able to be out and about again, although the rheumatism in his hand still troubles him somewhat.

H. Brackman, of Brackman & Ker, left for Los Angeles by the Walla Walla this morning. This is Mr. Brackman's first visit to California for 19 years.

James Montgomery, formerly of New Westminster, and for considerable time engineer of the steamer Root. Dunsmuir, is still lying ill at Victoria. His condition is not much improved.

C. B. Sword, G. B. Martin, C. E. Semlin, Thos. Foster, T. C. Brown, T. E. Kitchen and J. W. Horne, M.P.P., arrived over from the Mainland last evening to be present at the opening of the House to-morrow.

WHARF AND WAVE.

Jottings of Interest to Marine Men Concisely Compiled.

The steamer Danube goes north to-morrow.

The schooner Maggie Mac will not sail until Saturday.

There are now 18 schooners shipping their crews for the sealing season.

The steamer R. P. Rithet has gone to the Fraser river for more freight.

The steamer Mascotte left last night for Nanaimo to load coal for Victoria.

Schooner Mascot is expected to leave to-morrow. She completed her crew to-day.

It is expected that the ship Henry Villard will be ready for sea by the end of the week.

The American ship Henry Villard has loaded 45,000 cases of salmon and has yet to take on 15,000 more.

The bark G. S. Homer has arrived at Seattle from New York after a long and stormy trip of nearly five months.

It is understood that two or more new ships will be chartered during the coming season to run in connection with the Dunsmuir mines.

Another new tug is to be built on the Fraser by M. G. Terhune. The new steamer will be a sister vessel to the Brunnette, but will have more powerful engines.

Steamer Lorne will continue to make weekly trips to Nanaimo with freight till the Cowichan Bridge is finished. The freight traffic is increasing rapidly and the Isabel is not able to take it all.

It will cost $38,000 to repair the steamer Costa Rica, which went ashore at Race Rocks some time ago. She was pulled off by the tug Lorne. Both the Lorne and the Costa Rica are owned by Alex. Dunsmuir, and Captain McIntyre was underwriters' agent. He demurred to the bill of $12,000, put in by his own employer as salvage on his own ship, but after deliberation the underwriters allowed that amount. The Costa Rica is valued at $70,000 and was insured for $60,000.

NOTICE.

Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway.

Until further notice the afternoon trains on Saturdays and Mondays are cancelled.

Arrived.

OUR OTTAWA LETTER.

INTERESTING CHAT WITH ONE OF STANLEY'S EXPEDITION.

The Municipal Elections in Ottawa—Foster's Trip to the West Indies—Ottawa Festivities—The Ceremony of Calling at Government House.

OTTAWA, Jan. 5.—One of Ottawa's guests at present is A. J. Mounteney Jephson, the colleague of H. M. Stanley during his last expedition through darkest Africa. He is accompanied by Hamilton Aide, the well-known London composer and a relative of Mr. Stanley's wife, nee Miss Tennant. They have been making a tour of the principal American cities, and intend staying here for a week. It will be remembered that Mr. Jephson is the officer who was taken prisoner with Emin Bey by the latter's troops, and afterwards made his escape in a canoe to Stanley's troops, who were then marching northwards to Lake Albert. After joining Stanley he afterwards proceeded to the rescue of Emin, and in respect to this matter Mr. Jephson is very emphatic in his denial of the stories published discrediting the great explorer. He maintains that Emin Bey was really in danger, if not of death, certainly of a long life of servitude as a barefooted dervish, and says that he has in his possession a letter from Emin, in which the latter expresses his longing to be with Stanley again. In this connection Mr. Jephson contends that Stanley is a badly maligned man, and time will bring those who traduce him to book for their conduct. To General Gordon and Sir Samuel Baker, Mr. Jephson says, much of the credit is due which is now given to Emin Bey. The sentence of death passed on himself and Emin would calmly be carried out, as far as he was concerned, had he not succeeded in escaping from his revolted followers. The most important question, however, which is now agitating the public mind in connection with the expedition, namely as to Major Bartelott and the rear column, and upon which no doubt Mr. Jephson could throw some light, were he so disposed, but in regard to this subject he declines to speak. He, however, insists that time will show that Mr. Stanley was driven to make the retort that he did, and that in the long run intelligent community will show that what he has said was correct. Regarding Lieut. Stairs, the Canadian member of the expedition, Mr. Jephson speaks in the highest terms of praise. He was a good comrade and true friend. Mr. Jephson objects to the states of Europe apportioning among themselves the vast territory of Africa. This is a matter in which all the people of that country are interesting themselves. "In draining the swamps," says Mr. Jephson, no one need have any regard for the welfare of the frogs, and that is just how the Europeans have acted with the natives of Africa, having secured the property at a price wholly below the real value of it. As to climate, the country is not what it is represented to be although the girdle of fever-stricken land does exist. The country is one of the grandest heritages of the race.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

The municipal elections which took place here to-day, created no great excitement, although the supporters of the various candidates worked like Trojans during the day, and as a consequence, the vote polled was a large one. Never in the history of Ottawa was there such a mixture, as far as the candidates themselves were concerned. In the first place there was Dr. St. Jean, an old parliamentarian and an ex-mayor of the city, who came out as a representative of the French-Canadian race. During the two years he filled the chief magistrate's chair in the city hall he was a general favorite of the people. Alderman Heney was another candidate, who laid his principal claim for bearing the suffrages of the people on the fact that for thirty years or upwards he represented them at the council board. Spoken of generally as the father of the council, his admiring friends thought it would be a most fitting thing that his municipal career should be ended with a year as presiding officer of the council. Beyond this he had no other claims to recommend him for the position. Mr. Thomas Birkett, an old councillor, has been many times offered the position, but he always refused, but on the present occasion he was determined to run, even against the wishes of his old supporters. Those who pretend to know what they talk about say that his reasons are due to the fact that he intends to use the mayoralty as a stepping-stone towards political honors. The silence of the Citizen newspaper in support of Mr. Birkett, notwithstanding that he was one of the most prominent supporters of the Conservative party in the city, and at one time interested in the Citizen, goes to show that there is some truth in this. The absence of Mr. C. H. Mackintosh, M.P., from the city and the disaffection of several of the Tory wire-pullers, who came out for Birkett, all go to show that this is the case. Ald. MacLean, formerly of MacLean, Rogers & Co., parliamentary and departmental printers, was looked upon as a strong candidate, as he was certainly the best qualified in point of ability and in every other respect, to fill the Mayor's chair. An old newspaper man, at one time editor and proprietor of the Cornwall Freeholder, subsequently Ottawa correspondent of the Globe, and afterwards one of the leading editorial writers on the same paper, he ultimately became editor and one of the proprietors of the Ottawa Times. Ald. Roger, who again heads the poll for Rideau ward, being the other member of the firm. Both gentlemen are now largely interested in city property and heavy employers of labor, yet Mr. MacLean got an extremely small vote, although twice elected alderman for the leading ward of the city. To make the matter short, the result was due to the fact that while Mr. Birkett had the Conservative machine working for him, despite that Ald Heney was of the same politics stripe, and the ultra Protestants who otherwise would have voted for A. MacLean, were petitioned not to do so but to vote for Mr. Birkett, and save the election of a Frenchman, Dr. St. Jean. Both cries had their effect and the services of a good and clever man for the city for the present. The bad blood which has been aroused during the fight will not disappear when the general elections come about. Eleven new members were elected to the council and thirteen of the old ones were again returned.

MR. FOSTER'S RETURN.

The best thing that can be said of Hon. Mr. Foster's return from his trip to the West Indies is that while he accomplished no good he did no harm, and his visit may have done something in the way of advertising the Dominion generally. No one therefore will begrudge the Finance Minister the cost of the trip, since it must have been to him a pleasant outing. Seeking new markets for Canadian trade and glorying in the fact that the United States markets are to some extent closed, to us is not so pleasant or profitable to the people as it seems to be to the average Tory politician and ward heelers of the party.

NEW YEAR'S FESTIVITES.

The event of the day, that is New Year's day, in Ottawa, is the calling on His Excellency, the Governor-General, who, for a couple of hours waits in his office in the departmental buildings to see all who are pleased to wait on him and shake him by the hand. The absence of the leading citizens of Ottawa and the presence of the political drones in the civil service are always noticeable, the latter visiting one of the leading hotels in the city to secure a couple of visiting cards to leave with His Excellency's aide-de-camps so that their names may be duly chronicled in the press the following day. When I read this list it always reminds us the docket, or perhaps list would be a more euphonious term to those concerned, in the proceedings of the county division court. Speaking of these festivites it will be interesting to many British Columbians, especially those who attend the proceedings of parliament, to known that Mr. F. X. St. Jaques, proprietor of the Russell, entertained sumptuously all his visitors from 12 to 2 o'clock. During these two hours was an open house, something new to the people of the Capital. Although not calling gowans from the lea, roses from the garden and picking up an occasional strawberry here and there as your people on the Pacific slope aver you were doing on the ushering in of the New Year, still with the thermometer below zero, the sleighting excellent and the weather in every way good and bracing, we enjoyed ourselves in this vicinity in every sense of the term. That the year may be a happy one to all readers of the TIMES is the earnest wish of their humble servant, SLABTOWN.

CITY AND PROVINCIAL.

THEIR MONTHLY MEETING.

Very Little Business Comes Before the School Trustees.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of school trustees was held in the city hall last evening, Trustee Hayward in the chair and trustees Erskine, Walker, Hall and Mallandaine present. The minutes of the last meeting having been read the secretary read the following

COMMUNICATIONS.

From Miss Armstrong, suggesting that a roll of honor be presented to the first divisions of the schools to have the names of the girls who pass out head of the classes inscribed.

The Chairman—It would be a very acceptable thing to have but where is the money to come from from.

Trustee Mallandaine moved that the secretary be instructed to write to Miss Armstrong stating that the trustees agree with her but they have no funds to pay for the necessary roll of honor board.—Carried.

ATTENDANCE.

The total number of children attending the Victoria schools during December was 1389, and average daily attendance 1243.6. In December, 1889, there were 1211 children attending with an average daily attendance of 956.10. The average number of children per teacher was 46.4 during December, and there are 27 teachers.

Trustee Hall said he with Trustee Walker had visited the Hillside ward school yesterday and found the desks badly out of repair, the scholars having to use boxes to keep the desks in shape. The desks are of the old style and not worth repairing.

Chairman—I suppose we will have to inform the department of this as the trustees have no money to repair the desks.

Trustee Hall—It would be better to let the papers know it and let them go after the department.

Trustee Walker—The desks are so bad that the children take nails to school with them to nail their desks. He had heard though that a carpenter was going to be sent to do some repairing.

The matter was dropped without any decision being reached and the board went into committee of the whole to consider the resignation of Miss Arrowsmith as teacher of Hillside ward school.

After due consideration they declined to accept Miss Arrowsmith's resignation, for the present at least.

SINGLE TAX PLATFORM.

The Society Adopts a Code and Passes a Vote of Thanks to the Press.

At a meeting of the Tax Reform Association held at Vancouver last week, the following platform was adopted:—

We hold that all men born into the world have an equal right to life and the means of living. The earth is the only source from which the physical wants of mankind can be supplied. Therefore man's right to the use of the earth, the common gift of the Creator to the race, is the one essential condition of his existence.

With a reasonable amount of labor the earth is capable of producing abundantly for the support of its population, and it becomes the duty of all citizens to use every reasonable effort to secure to labor free access to the land which is the source of all wealth.

To carry out these principles we are in favor of raising all revenues for governmental purposes by a direct tax on land values, irrespective of improvements.

The adoption of this method of taxation would be an untold benefit to all classes of the community. It would stimulate industry, reward enterprise and secure to every man a just and equitable return for his labor, and at the same time would render it unprofitable to hold valuable land for merely speculative purposes.

With regard to monopolies other than the monopoly of land, we hold that where free competition becomes impossible, as in the case of railways, they are proper social function, and should be controlled and managed by and for the whole people concerned.

The following resolutions were adopted:

"Resolved that thisassociation would impress upon every voter in the Province who believes in the views advocated by single tax men, to take a careful interest in the matters discussed by the Local Legislature, and especially the action taken thereon by their representatives in that body, in order that they may be prepared at the next Provincial election to select candidates who will work for the adoption of laws in accord with the principles of the single tax."

"Resolved that this Association extends its sincere thanks to the various newspapers in the Province for the liberal manner in which they have admitted the discussion of our principles in their columns in the past year, and we particularly wish to thank the Colonist for the rabid way it has misrepresented us, as by so doing it has materially turned public attention in our favor."

Wisdom's Violet Cream.

Is a new and elegant preparation for eradicating and preventing roughness of the face and hands. Use it freely at night just before retiring and you will be delighted with a soft, smooth skin. Try it. D. E. Campbell, agent.

Election Bets.

So far there has been very little betting on the result of to-morrow's election. It is pretty generally conceded that Mayor Grant will be returned by a large majority, and betting on the mayoralty has only been made on majorities. A few wagers on the ticket in the several wards have been made for small amounts.

Unpleasant Experience.

A young man named Benton, a bartender at the Vancouver house, had a narrow escape from death at Port Townsend Monday night in trying to board the steamer he walked off the edge of the dock. The tide was at low ebb and he fell full twenty feet before striking the cold water. When rescued he was numb and insensible from the effects of the cold, but ultimately recovered.

Delta Election.

The following council was elected by acclamation at Ladner's on Monday: For reeve, W. H. Ladner; councillor for Ward 1, R. Matheson; Ward 2, Wm. Arthur; Ward 3, William Goudy; Ward 4, J. A. Paterson; Ward 5, John Oliver.

Will Return to the Mines.

Geo. Kenny, of Omineca, who has been down for several weeks will return to the gold fields by the next steamer that goes north. He will make the trip from Port Simpson to the interior on snowshoes. A lot of other miners will return at the same time.

Mr. Wilson's Supporters.

There will be a meeting of Mr. Alex. Wilson's supporters at the Victoria Theatre to-night, when that gentleman will address the electors, and will explain his platform and the stand he will take in municipal affairs. Several other gentleman will also address the meeting, and it is supposed Mayor Grant will be present.

Excursions to Anacortes.

The Union Pacific S.S. Company will sell tickets on the 19th, 20th, 21st, 22nd and 23rd inst., for Anacortes and return at single fare. Those who take advantage of this offer will take the steamer here at 9 p.m., and catch the steamer for Anacortes at Port Townsend. All the steamship companies on the Sound intend to do the same, and Anacortes will be lively for a few days.

Fast Time.

The Union Pacific vestibuled train leaving Portland at 9.00 p.m., has Pullman sleeping and dining cars. Free Pullman Tourist cars, and free reclining chair cars to Omaha, Kansas City and Chicago, without change. Steamers leave Victoria daily (except Sunday.) For tickets to any point east, north and south, call on or address Morris J. Bissell 100 Government St., Victoria, B. C.

Preparing.

Returning Officer Bull has had the polling booths erected, the voters' lists prepared, and all matters arranged for the municipal elections to-morrow. The polling places for aldermen will be at the usual localities; for James Bay Ward, at the old hook and ladder house, Government street; for Yates Street Ward, at the Burnes' House, Bastion square; for Johnson Street Ward, in the office of the Superintendent of Police; for Mayor, in the City Police Court room. The polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Daughters of Rebekah.

Last night, in Odd Fellows' Hall, Sister Bishop, District Deputy of Colfax Rebekah Degree, Lodge No. 1, installed the following officers: N. G., Sister Miss J. Carne; V. G., Sister Mrs. Somerville; Secretary, Sister Miss A. Huxtable; Treasurer, Sister Mrs. J. Meldrum; R.S.N.G., Sister J. Pope; L.S.N.G., Sister S. Neil; R.S.V.G., Sister Mrs. Taylor; L.S.V.G., Sister Mrs. Dempster; Conductor, Sister Mrs. Bishop; Warden, Sister Mrs. Clyde; I.G., Sister Miss A. Gosnell; O. G., Bro. W. H. Huxtable; Chaplain, Sister Mrs. Owens.

Beautiful Women.

The magical efforts of Wisdom's Robertine as a beautifer and preserver of the complexion have been attested by thousands of leading ladies of society and the stage. It is the only article ever discovered which gives a natural and beautiful tint to the complexion, removing tan, sunburn, freckles and all roughness of the face and arms, leaving remarks on its delightfuly cooling and refreshing properties, a distinction not found in any other similar article known. D. E. Campbell, agent.

Not Many Voters.

On the voters lists are the names of 2106 people who have a vote for mayor to-morrow. It is hardly probable that more than one half this number will vote. In 1889 when the civic chair was contested for by Mayor Grant and Mr. Robt. Ward, an even 1000 votes were cast for the candidates, and it is not likely that much more than that number will be given this year. A great many people have failed to register themselves as voters, while the non-payment of taxes and a change requiring the registration of household voters have disfranchised a large number.

Devotees of the Dance.

There was something funereal about the assembly in Philharmonic hall last evening; it looked so weird and grotesque to see those sheeted, masked figures float 'round like shadows to the cadence of the music as felt in the different dances. Some of the figures were fantastically arranged, a few were droll-looking, but the generality was, to say the least, sepulchral. The gentlemen more or less aimed at the comical, the ladies looked as the varying taste of woman prompts. Here was a staid-looking nun who appeared dark and mysterious behind her mask as she danced with a fiendish-looking Mephistopheles; there was a demure figure, draped like one of the vestal virgins of old, keeping time with a clownish individual of the male sex. Everything went by contrast, and rarely did a cavalier correspond with his fair partner in style of dress. In this way there were two good hours of mutual mystification till the time for declaring one's identity came, and then some eyes were opened wide with wonder. After refreshments had been served and partaken of, Mr. Pferdner's orchestra again called the dance devotees together, and mystery having been laid aside with the masks, enjoyment reigned supreme. The married ladies scored a great success in their idea. It rids such an occasion of a certain stiffness, and works wonders in promoting solid enjoyment.

Mid-day Fire.

At 12.20 o'clock to-day Mr. H. Stephens noticed smoke and fire issuing from a small frame dwelling on the east side of Rupert street, between Collinson and Humboldt streets. He turned in an alarm from box 13, and in six minutes the firemen had a stream of water on the fire, which was quickly suppressed. The loss will amount to $50, with no insurance. It was not considered advisable to have the whole department at the fire, and No. 2 company was sent back to their engine house. The members of No. 1 and No 3 companies made short work of the fire and a stream of water from the John Grant steam fire engine ripped shingles off the roof and found the fire in a few minutes.

VERNON, VERNON

THE TERMINUS OF THE

SHUSWAP & OKANAGAN RAILWAY

Situated in the Heart of the Famous Okanagan Valley.

THE RAILWAY CENTRE OF THE INTERIOR

The Shuswap & Okanagan Railway is now under construction, and will be completed and in Operation to Vernon next Summer, 1891.

The Okanagan & Kootenay Railway Co. obtained a charter (with land grants of 20,000 acres per mile) to construct a railway from Vernon to Sproat's Landing, via the Coldstream Valley and Cherry Creek Mines.

A charter will be applied for at the next session of the Local Legislature to construct a Railway from Vernon south to the International Boundary, to connect with the American railway system.

This is a great chance to make money, as Vernon, being in the heart of the most extensive agricultural district in the Province, will undoubtedly become a large and flourishing city.

Arrangements have been completed with responsible parties for publishing a good weekly paper at Vernon, to commence business early in the new year. This paper will be circulated by the company in all parts of the world.

A Large Hotel will be erected early next spring, and plans for same are now ready.

PLANS OF TOWN-SITE ARE NOW IN ALL REAL ESTATE OFFICES

A large number of lots have already been sold, and most of these will have buildings erected on them early next year.
Special Inducements are offered to builders. See price list. Free sites will be given to parties establishing industries.
Financial assistance will also be given to responsible parties engaging in legitimate enterprises.

ADVANCE IN PRICES.

The Company will advance prices of all central lots early next month. Intending purchasers should not delay selecting lots now in order to obtain the benefit of this advance.

Vernon is situated in a pass commanding and making tributary to it the whole of the famous Okanagan Valley and its tributary valleys, the grazing country of the Lower Nicola, the mining camps of Rock Creek, Granite Creek, Keremeos, Okanagan and Monishee Mountain, the placer diggings of Cherry Creek and Shuswap Creek. It is impossible to get to any of the above places without first going through Vernan.

The opening of the Shuswap & Okanagan Railway next summer will flood this favored country with land and mining prospectors, &c., and will give a great impetus to the farming, fruit growing, grazing and mining industries. Several important industries are projected and will likely be started in Vernon next year.

The best advice we can give intending purchasers is to go and see for yourself. The C.P.R. to Sicamous, Stage from Sicamous to Vernon. Leave Vancouver on Mondays or Fridays, arrive Vernon Tuesday or Friday evening.

Mallette's Addition to Port Angeles

This is one of the finest additions on the market, being perfectly level and only a short distance from the centre of the Town. Mr Mallette, being among the first to invest in Port Angeles, had the choice of property, and chose this as the most suitable piece for platting.

A wide graded road runs directly through the centre of the Addition, making it easy of access.

A franchise has been granted for a street car line to run directly through the Addition.

The population of Port Angeles has increased from 500 to 3,000 during the last year, and will treble itself during the next year.

Port Angeles has been made the County Seat and a Port of Entry.

A line of steamers will soon be put on between Victoria and Port Angeles.

No place on the Pacific Coast offers as good inducements for investors to-day as Port Angeles. Now is the time to buy, as there is certain to be a sharp rise in values in the early spring, when there will undoubtedly be railroad work commenced between Port Angeles and Grey's Harbor.

Lots for sale in the above Addition from $100 up, on easy terms. Title guaranteed. Apply to
